James Danske contributed the he has trail cameras set up at his residence and he sees multiple cats at night rooming around. The area smells of cat urine and the cats are using children's sandboxes. There is a problem he feels and the humane thing to do is live trap them and bring them to the animal shelter.

Michelle Smokevitch stated she is unaware of any program that will spay/neuter cats at no cost. She provides for a cat at the Harbour House that was a stray. She also believes there is a problem with too many cats rooming around at night.

City Manager Valesano presented his manager's report.
